RECEPTION TO HONOR PRINCIPAL & TEACHERS

Plans have been completed by three Rochester organizations for a reception to be held in honor of the new principal and all members of the teaching staff of Rochester Memorial School. The event will take place at 7:30 P.M. Wednesday, September 25, in the school auditorium. Featured on the program will be Tony Pacheco of New Bedford. Mr. Pacheco will entertain with guitar selections of folk music. Refreshments will be served.

A guest of honor will be William Keavy who assumed his duties as principal of the Rochester school at the beginning of this school term. Honored guests will also include Dr. Charles Regan and Joseph Kunces, superintendent of schools of the three towns, Rochester, Marion and Mattapoisett. Teachers honored at the reception will be Mrs. Ralph Baker and Mrs. Violet Jones, both first grade teachers; Mrs. Lonnie Monroe, second grade; Mrs. Agnes Bonner, third grade; George Evans and Paul Alves, both fourth grade teachers; Albert Jenney, fifth grade; and Mrs. Dorothy Bonner and Mrs. William Riddell, both sixth grade teachers. Mrs. Monroe, Mr. Evans and Mr. Alves are new this year to the teaching staff.

Also receiving a place of honor at the event will be Mrs. Bernard Tillson, teacher of the special class; Richard Mello, art instructor; Mrs. Richard Blasdale, supervisor of music;

HURRAH FOR THE LADIES

..We love 'em!

In America nowadays, the lady of the house is more efficient and all-around feminine than ever. And we like to think that the modern food industry has something to do with it.

She used to have to spend 5 or 6 hours in a hot kitchen cooking three meals a day. (It's still the case, in Europe.) In America she can do that in 90 minutes now—because many foods today have "built-in maid service." Much of the drudgery is done for her . . . in modern mixes, instants, precooked, partly or fully prepared foods. Yet—

The little lady spends a smaller share of family income for food than before, or since, World War II.*

She's a wonder. Keeps her family fed better . . . because she keeps America's biggest business (farmers, food processors and grocers) improving your food. She's one smart reason why—

PARENTS OF SENIORS INVITED TO ORRHS

Parents of senior class members are cordially invited to come to Old Rochester Regional High School cafeteria for a meeting October 3, 1963, at 8 P.M. At this time an opportunity will be given to meet the two new members of the Guidance Department, Miss Rosalie Tirrell and Mr. Edward Spalding.

The meeting will be a follow-up of the Junior Parent's Night held last Spring. Information will be given to assist parents in specific plans for making application, visiting schools or colleges, examinations, procedures for job placement, and information on the armed forces.

After a short general meeting, the group will divide into smaller units in charge of the counselor assigned to that area.

Miss Rosalie Tirrell will meet with prospec-

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE

The Rochester Bowling League opened the 1963-64 season at the Bowl-Mor Alleys in Mattapoisett, with Lloyd's Market upsetting their jinx, Herb's TV Shop. Don Gifford's 346 paced Lloyds to a 3 to 0 win with Gus Johnson's 334 tops for Herbs. Hiller's Garage picked up two points from Hartley's Garage as Jay Hiller posted a 328 and Eddie Rounseville a 335 for Hartleys. Mike Renahan hit 388 for Dennis Mahoney & Sons and a 2 to 1 victory over the Knotty Pine Cafe. Bob Jefferson was the big man for the Cafe with his 356 triple. Henry Hartley's 324 led Hartley Saw Mill to a 2 to 1 win over the Woodchoppers. Art Tripp pinned a 331 for the losers.

CUB SCOUT FAMILY COOKOUT

The Cub Scout Pack #53 of Mattapoisett will start off the new Cub Scout year with a family cookout on Sunday afternoon, September 29th, at 12:30 in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Helfand on Crystal Spring Road.

Notices have been distributed at the Center School inviting all boys between the ages of 8 to 11 who are now Cub Scouts or wish to join and their families.

All food and beverages will be provided by the committee and a program for the youngsters is planned. It is hoped to make this a good chance for all Cubs, their families and Pack committee workers to get together to better understand the Cub program and what is planned for the year.

The committee also wishes to extend to boys that will soon reach their 8th birthday to also feel free to join this group and bring their families.

Any boy who has not sent in his attendance slip to his teacher may still contact any of the outing committee to tell how many will come to the cookout. This will help with the planning.

The Pack committee consists of Mr. Helfand,

Dear friends,
Our personal thanks to the people of this community for the consideration they give to funeral processions.
It is understood, we are sure, that a funeral has right-of-way. Cars should stop and wait. Not only is this a mark of respect, but it is also a measure of safety.
Your cooperation is always appreciated.

GIRL SCOUT ACTIVITIES & TRAINING

Adult volunteers and Girl Scouts of the Mattapoisett Neighborhood anticipate a busy and fruitful year. This growing organization will have two Brownie Troops, three Junior Girl Scout Troops and one Cadette Troop this year.

Response from adults willing to give their time has been gratifying, but more adults are needed if the girls are to have a full Scouting program this year.

Training opportunities are made available to anyone interested in Girl Scouts by the Plymouth Bay Girl Scout Council. "How to Work with a Troop" will be explained October 1 and 8 from 9:30 A.M. to 12 noon at the Unitarian Church, corner Union and 8th Streets, New Bedford. For those unable to attend in the morning, evening sessions will be held from 7:30 to 10 P.M., same dates, same place.

Because of the major changes taking place in the Girl Scout program starting this Fall, two sessions of training are also being offered in "Program Change". These are scheduled to be held at the Unitarian Parish House, Fairhaven on September 26 and October 3 from 9:30 to 11:30 A.M.

These sessions are of value to everyone working with Scouts. A well-informed neighborhood group will be better prepared to serve the girls. It is hoped that many troop committee members and badge consultants will sign up, as well as leaders and assistant leaders. Anyone wishing to attend any or all sessions is asked to contact Mrs. Gordon Larcom, neighborhood chairman, SK 8-2774; Mrs. David Goodenough,

HOME FROM EUROPEAN TOUR

Miss Shirley Kay Price, daughter of the Oman R. Prices of Point Connett, Mattapoisett, has recently returned from a 9-week tour of Europe. She traveled with Miss Anita R. Angel of San Francisco. They arrived in Paris, France July 10th, and traveled to England, Belgium, Germany Austria, Switzerland and Itlay. During August they studied at College International, Cannes, France, which was arranged under the auspices of the American Intercultural Society.

While touring, Miss Price concentrated on the Art Centers of Europe such as Florence, Rome, Paris and Munich.

Very intriguing were the different foods, customs and people she encountered throughout Europe. She valued the experience and ap-
